From Father Rodney

“April showers, bring May flowers.” These words can be traced back to England from the 1500s poet Thomas Tusser. Back then, he wrote, “Sweet April showers do spring May flowers.” In England, the month of April brings huge weather swings with the jet stream lifting northward at the start of spring. Here in New England, much of the same can be said. Not too sure about the jet stream but we know that April can be a wet month. By all accounts, it is one of the soupiest months of the year, but it does lead to warmer, longer, and sunnier days.

The Prophet Isaiah in the 43 chapter of this lengthy book of scripture uses an image that is helpful to us as our days of Lent quickly comes to a close. He writes, “for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.” When we think of the desert, we often think of a dry, barren waste that is uninhabitable. Isaiah is aware of this and prophies in the name of the Lord that the unpleasantness of the desert will indeed change, and God will play a major part in bringing about that change because He Himself will put the water there bringing new life. As He vivifies the desert, bringing it new life there is something required of us: God wants us to announce His praise. Spreading the Good News is a requirement of all disciples and not simply the ordained. Water is essential for our existence both: both physical and spiritual. Without water, plants do not grow; without water we cannot survive. If we desire a strong and healthy relationship with God, we need to drink of the waters of His wellspring. As our Lenten days begin to come to an end, have we used these days to ready ourselves to live as the newborn people who depend upon our God for the life He wants us to live? The life He wants us to live leads to newness of life. May we all use these final days to ready ourselves for the glories of Easter when we bask in His Glory that He so freely shares with us.

Pray for Ukraine

Please join together in praying a decade (or more) of the Rosary daily for the people of Ukraine and Russia and for the end of the war. At the back of each of the churches in the Parish there is a blue binder with the Ukrainian colors on the front. If you feel led by the Holy Spirit to do so, please sign your name as a simple commitment to pray daily until the end of this crisis. Sometimes even as a people of God we can feel overwhelmed or powerless when we see the images coming out of Ukraine and hear about demonstrators in Russia being beaten and any independent news sources being shut down. We can lose heart. We often forget that we have the most powerful weapon of all... prayer and when we come together as a community there is real power. Thank you for taking a few moments out of your day to unite with the larger Catholic/Christian community to pray for an end to this crisis.

We Welcome

On March 26 we welcomed a new member into our Catholic faith and Transfiguration of the Lord Parish at the sacrament of baptism. We welcome: Ava Grace Parrillo, daughter of Patricia & Anthony Parrillo. Congratulations to Ava Grace, her parents, godparents, family and friends on this joyous celebration of faith and family.

Readings for April 3

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea
and a path in the mighty waters,
who leads out chariots and horsemen,
a powerful army,
till they lie prostrate together, never to rise,
snuffed out and quenched like a wick.
Remember not the events of the past,
the things of long ago consider not;
see, I am doing something new!
Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?
In the desert I make a way,
in the wasteland, rivers.
Wild beasts honor me,
jackals and ostriches,
for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink,
the people whom I formed for myself,
that they might announce my praise.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion,
we were like men dreaming.
Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for them."
The LORD has done great things for us;
we are glad indeed.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like the torrents in the southern desert.
Those that sow in tears shall reap rejoicing.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

Although they go forth weeping, carrying the seed to be sown,
They shall come back rejoicing, carrying their sheaves.

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

SECOND READING

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians

Brothers and sisters: I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL

The Lord be with you.

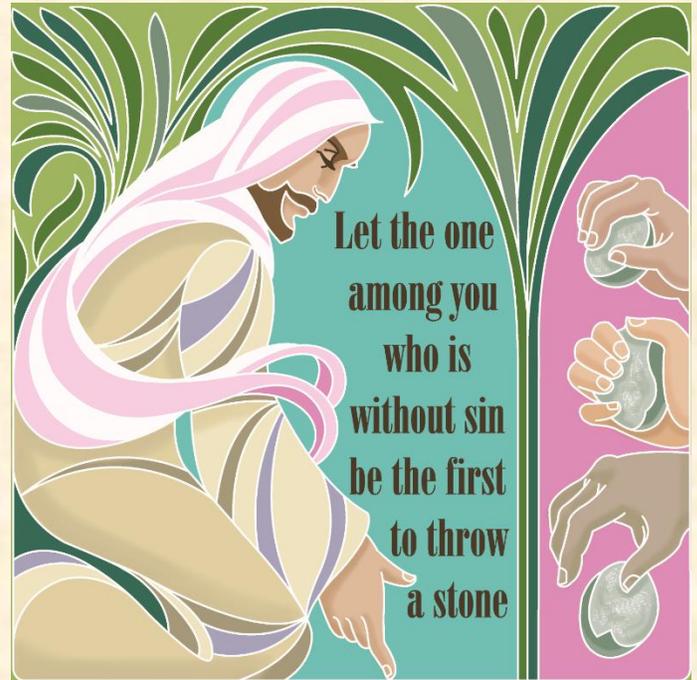

And with your spirit.

† A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Next weekend, many churches provide palms to be carried in the opening moments of the liturgy, as we gratefully recall Jesus' entry into the holy city of Jerusalem. The children who greeted him on that day used what was both handy and traditional, since palms were carried to inaugurate the joyful harvest feast of Succoth. To this day, faithful Jews are directed to take a beautiful palm branch, green and straight as possible, called a lulav, and bind it with three myrtle branches fifteen inches long, and two longer willow branches. At the end of the temple service, everyone carries the lulav, circling the sanctuary in a dance called the Hoshanot, singing hymns of joy.

In other climates, Jews and Christians alike have had to make accommodations over the years. In Italy, everyone carries olive branches today, often brought from their own garden. In England, forsythia branches are preferred, a relative of the olive, sign of peace. Germans prefer pussywillows, and others look for flowering spring branches. In our part of the world, what do you think would be the best choice to express joy and welcome, and to remind us of the joy of Christ's victory even as we prepare to commemorate his passion?

To Whom It May Concern:

I hope and pray that this letter finds you well as you continue to help bring the mercy and compassion of Christ to those in need around the Globe.

It is obvious to many in our great nation and around the Globe that the dire situation in Ukraine worsens by the day and that we need to help. Our parish has taken steps to prayerfully get involved in bringing an end to the current conflict in Ukraine but our hearts were moved to help monetarily. Along with this letter, you will find checks totaling $23,019. This includes a donation from Transfiguration of the Lord Parish Community which is located in North Attleborough, Massachusetts as well as a donation from our parish school – Saint Mary Sacred Heart School – as the students collected and are making a donation of $1,025. This figure is included in the larger number previously stated. We chose Catholic Relief Services as you are a well-known charitable organization that is known for accomplishing great work with very little overhead.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Be sure of the continued prayers of each and every parishioner and may God bless the work that you do.

With every best wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

(Rev) Rodney E. Thibault, J.C.L.
