From Father Rodney

When I got the call, I must admit, I was nervous. “What’s the nature of the meeting” I asked the Bishop’s Administrative Assistant. The response: “It’s a personnel matter.” My gut sank. All priests know what this means. A transfer. But how could this be, I asked myself. I had only been at Saint Mary Parish in South Dartmouth for 7 years. We had only completed the major renovation less than two years earlier. How could I be up for a move? And so, on April 9, 2019, I dutifully arrived at the Bishop’s Office on a lovely Spring Day. The sun was shining; the birds were chirping; the smell of early blossoms. What a great day but, I asked myself: why am I not enjoying it? The butterflies in my stomach were swirling around so much that I could barely concentrate as I drove on 195 West to my destination: 47 Underwood Street – the Office of the Bishop of Fall River. Not to my surprise, the Bishop wanted to meet with me to discuss a transfer. He did not immediately inform me where he wanted to send me. He asked how I was doing. Had I taken any vacation recently. My mind was simply screaming out: ask me already and then he finally did. You know the rest of the story – whether that is a good thing or a bad thing! He wanted me to assume the pastorate of Saint Mary of the Immaculate Conception Parish, Sacred Heart Parish and Saint Mark Parish. What? Three parishes? I can’t do that. I’m not superman. I am reminded of that day as I read the words of the Prophet Isaiah, we hear proclaimed this 5th Sunday in Ordinary time. Initially, the prophet’s first words were what I thought: “Woe is me, I am doomed”! But after some reflection and much prayer – I mean it – prayed – I thought about the call of the priest to serve and to do so even when the task at hand seems to be too great for any one person. I realize – now more than ever – that the prophet’s final words became my own: “Here I am, I said: “send me.” Oftentimes situations arise in our lives that are daunting and seemingly overwhelming and rightly so, but when we put our faith, trust, and hope in the Lord, we come to the realization that with God, all things are possible. As I continue my ministry here in North Attleborough, I know that the Lord has put each of you in my life for a reason and He has put me in your lives for a reason. I pray that as we enter the second month of this new year, still in its’ infancy, we will continue to transfigure our community into the shining beacon on a hill so that building up the Body of Christ here and now, will continue to grow and strengthen so that, when faced with any sort of challenge, we will make Isaiah’s words are very own: “Here I am, send me.”

Blizzard 2022

For obvious reasons, Mass attendance was very low this past weekend but alas, the cost of cleaning the three worship sites was extremely high. I will publish the cost of storm in the bulletin next week. I would just like to take the opportunity – in advance – to thank every household for continuing to financially support the parish during this unprecedented meteorological event.

LENT 2022

In less than a month, we will usher in the Season of Lent. I don't want to put the cart before the horse but, I would like to bring your attention to a few additional Lenten practices that will be offered. On Friday evenings, I will be in the confessional between 6:00PM-6:25PM for confessions. At 6:30, Stations of the Cross will be prayed followed by the celebration of Mass at 7:00PM. Hopefully, this will give more people an opportunity to take advantage of Lenten devotions. Please note that this will happen at Saint Mary Church throughout the season of Lent 2022.

Readings for February 6

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

In the year King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple. Seraphim were stationed above.

They cried one to the other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" At the sound of that cry, the frame of the door shook and the house was filled with smoke.

Then I said, "Woe is me, I am doomed! For I am a man of unclean lips, living among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!" Then one of the seraphim flew to me, holding an ember that he had taken with tongs from the altar.

He touched my mouth with it, and said, "See, now that this has touched your lips, your wickedness is removed, your sin purged."

Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" "Here I am," I said; "send me!"

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart,
for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple
and give thanks to your name.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Because of your kindness and your truth;
for you have made great above all things
your name and your promise.
When I called, you answered me;
you built up strength within me.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

All the kings of the earth shall give thanks to you, O LORD,
when they hear the words of your mouth;
and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD:
"Great is the glory of the LORD."

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Your right hand saves me.
The LORD will complete what
he has done for me;
your kindness, O LORD, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands.

R. In the sight of the angels I will sing your praises, Lord.

Second Reading

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

[I am reminding you,] brothers and sisters, [of the gospel I preached to you, which you indeed received and in which you also stand. Through it you are also being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you, unless you believed in vain. For] I handed on to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures; that he was buried; that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures; that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. After that, Christ appeared to more than five hundred brothers at once, most of whom are still living, though some have fallen asleep. After that he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one born abnormally, he appeared to me. [For I am the least of the apostles, not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace to me has not been ineffective. Indeed, I have toiled harder than all of them; not I, however, but the grace of God that is with me.] Therefore, whether it be I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke Glory to you, O Lord. †

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
