From Father Rodney

It is simply an inescapable part of life: we are always going to be in relationships. Husbands and wives; parents and children; co-workers; employer to employee; bishop and priest. I could go on and on but I think that you get the point. One of the most interesting things about relationships is that for them to properly work, there needs to be a basic understanding about each other. Of course, some of the relationships listed above a varying degree of knowledge. Some relationships require very little working knowledge for it to be a successful relationship. Conversely, some relationships are considerably more intimate in nature and require a deeper knowledge for it to be even considered successful. Knowledge of another gives us deeper insight into that person. The more we know about a person, the more we more fully become a part of their lives. Married couples will readily admit that it they want their marriage to be a success there has to be a high level of trust and a constant commitment to grown in knowledge, love and respect of the spouse.

In the first reading we hear proclaimed this Fourth Sunday of Ordinary Time, a beautiful image is used by the Prophet Jeremiah to help us to better understanding of our relationship with our God. Jeremiah prophesies: The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you. (Jer. 1: 4-5) God's intimate knowledge of us EVEN BEFORE we were born should make us think of how unique and special the relationship God has with His Holy People. There is nothing we can conceal with from our God. He so intimately knows us that He desires only that we acknowledge and embrace that relationship that He wants to share with us. Perhaps this year, we might embrace an opportunity to return to the Father, like the Prodigal Son, who only desires to welcome us back with welcome arms. Perhaps the Sacrament of Reconciliation is something that has not been used in a long time. The loving embrace of the Father who seeks to share His Mercy with us by forgiving us our sins so that we can experience the conversion of former sinful ways and live the redeemed existence He has called us to enjoy.

Monthly Adoration

Readings for January 30

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

The word of the LORD came to me, saying:

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you,
before you were born I dedicated you,
a prophet to the nations I appointed you.

But do you gird your loins;
stand up and tell them
all that I command you.

Be not crushed on their account,
as though I would leave you crushed
before them;

for it is I this day
who have made you a fortified city,

a pillar of iron, a wall of brass,
against the whole land:

against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people.

They will fight against you but not prevail over you,
for I am with you to deliver you,
says the LORD.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. I will sing of your salvation.

In you, O LORD, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.

In your justice rescue me, and deliver me;
incline your ear to me, and save me.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

Be my rock of refuge,
a stronghold to give me safety,
for you are my rock and my fortress.

O my God, rescue me from the hand of the wicked.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

For you are my hope, O Lord;
my trust, O God, from my youth.

On you I depend from birth;
from my mother's womb you are my strength.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

My mouth shall declare your justice,
day by day your salvation.

O God, you have taught me from my youth,
and till the present I proclaim your wondrous deeds.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

Second Reading

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: [Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way. If I speak in human and angelic tongues, but do not have love, I am a resounding gong or a clashing cymbal. And if I have the gift of prophecy, and comprehend all mysteries and all knowledge; if I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away everything I own, and if I hand my body over so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.]

Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Glory to you, O Lord. †

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
