From Father Rodney

Merry Christmas! No, I have a calendar. I know that it is the 9th of January. Today, the Church celebrates the Baptism of the Lord...the final day of the Christmas Season. I need to say it one last time as December 25, 2022 is a long way off!

As we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism, we do so just about 2 weeks after we celebrated the Birth of Jesus. As such, we mark the beginning of His public ministry. Historically, the Church believes that Jesus was approximately thirty years of age when He embarked on His journey of spreading the Good News of the Gospel. For three years, Jesus taught in synagogues; He cured the sick; He gave hope to those who had no hope and accomplished many other amazing things which gave His life and ministry meaning and purpose. It is, however, important for us to revisit the Jordan River, the place where His official ministry began. You see, when the Father claimed Jesus as His very own Son, He gave his Son the authority to make a message of hope known. The very fact that God the Father speaks and thereby acknowledges Jesus as His Son makes the hearers of the word to stop dead in the tracts – something importance is happens and we must take note. The Father wants us to focus on the His Son. His Son speaks a message that must be heard. Why? Because the message restores us to a proper and right relationship with our God. Jesus’s Baptism is an occasion for us to focus on what God wants us to do, namely, to listen to the words of the Son. The Son offers us a message of hope and joy; a message of peace and consolation in a world that oftentimes attempts to strip us of all of these blessings. As we bring our celebration of Christmas to an end, let us try to hold fast to the gift that God has given us – the gift of His Son, Jesus. The Way, the Truth and the Life. Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!

Monthly Adoration

Monthly Adoration is offered the first Tuesday of every month (February 1 is next). You are invited to join us in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in Saint Mary church, beginning at 9 a.m. with Morning Prayer and ending at 6 p.m. with Evening Prayer and Benediction. You can drop in at any time for as long as you like or, if you would like a specific time slot, please call Joanne Regali 508-643-3821 and leave a message.

Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Eucharist will obtain a more abundant measure of grace. (revealed by St. Alphonsus Ligouri)

Advent Adopt-A-Family Project

Please accept my sincere appreciation for your consistent generosity to the Adopt-A-Family project. Although many are struggling, so many families found ways to again be most generous to this effort. This year we provided for families who were especially in need of our collective love and support. Because of your unselfish assistance, we provided clothing for the children and parents. There were also books, games and the typical trappings of Christmas. In addition we were able to provide assistance for utility bills and will be able to support some with assistance during the year. The St. Vincent de Paul Society of Transfiguration Parish provided enough food and goodies for all and delivered all the gifts just before Christmas. The success of this project is such an expression of love from all who sacrifice so that others may experience the wonderful magic that comes with this very blessed season of the year. May God Bless us all now and in the New Year.

Most gratefully,
Betty Poirier, Chairperson

Please Keep Our Churches Clean

Please remove ALL papers, tissues and any other items and dispose of them properly as you leave the church. Nothing should be left in the pews after Mass. (Trash receptacles are available at the entrances/exits). Please return all kneelers to the upright position as you leave. Thank you for your assistance.

Missalettes for 2022

We now have our missalettes returned to the pews for your use during Mass. PLEASE do not take them home, they are for everyone's use. At the end of Mass, please return the missalette to the rack for the next person to use. Thank you!

Families have always been in my thoughts and prayers, but especially so during the pandemic, which has severely tested everyone, especially the most vulnerable among us. The present situation has made me want to accompany with humility, affection and openness each individual, married couple and family in all those situations in which you find yourselves.”*

Please click on the link below to read all of Pope Francis' prayers, desires and hopes for our families in the coming year.

Women's Spirituality Group

Are you interested in learning more about the Mass? Starting on Thursday, January 20th & meeting every other Thursday for six weeks we will begin a study about the Biblical basis of the Holy Mass. How has the Holy Bible influenced what we celebrate during the Mass in the present day? Where did traditions arise like kneeling before entering a pew? What is the particular significance of the different parts of the Mass? We are excited to enrich our experience with meeting Jesus in the Eucharist by developing a deeper understanding of this weekly celebration. Hope you can join us! If you are interested please reach out to Joanna Wissler (wissler5@verizon.net or 508-243-5307).

Readings for January 9

The Baptism of the Lord

First Reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God.

Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end,
her guilt is expiated;
indeed, she has received from the hand of the LORD
double for all her sins.

A voice cries out:

In the desert prepare the way of the LORD!
Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God!

Every valley shall be filled in,
every mountain and hill shall be made low;
the rugged land shall be made a plain,
the rough country, a broad valley.

Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Go up on to a high mountain,
Zion, herald of glad tidings;
cry out at the top of your voice,
Jerusalem, herald of good news!

Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah:
Here is your God!

Here comes with power
the Lord GOD,
who rules by a strong arm;
here is his reward with him,
his recompense before him.

Like a shepherd he feeds his flock;
in his arms he gathers the lambs,
carrying them in his bosom,
and leading the ewes with care.

The word of the Lord.      Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!
you are clothed with majesty and glory,
robed in light as with a cloak.

You have spread out the heavens like a tent-cloth.

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

You have constructed your palace upon the waters.
You make the clouds your chariot;
you travel on the wings of the wind.

You make the winds your messengers,
and flaming fire your ministers.

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

How manifold are your works, O LORD!
In wisdom you have wrought them all - the earth is full of your creatures;

the sea also, great and wide,
in which are schools without number of living things both small and great.

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

They look to you to give them food in due time.
When you give it to them, they gather it;
when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

If you take away their breath,
they perish and return to the dust.
When you send forth your spirit,
they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

R. O bless the Lord, my soul.

Second Reading

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to Titus

Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good.

When the kindness and generous love of God our savior appeared,
not because of any righteous deeds we had done
but because of his mercy,
He saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us
through Jesus Christ our savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life.

The word of the Lord.      Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel

The Lord be with you.      And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
Glory to you, O Lord. †

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
