From Father Rodney

Several years ago, Pope Francis, during his homily at the Vatican said the following about the Holy Trinity on this most solemn occasion.

"Today is the Sunday of the Most Holy Trinity. The light of Eastertide and of Pentecost renews in us every year the joy and amazement of faith: let us recognize that God is not something vague, our God is not a God "spray", he is tangible; he is not abstract but has a name: "God is love". His is not a sentimental, emotional kind of love but the love of the Father who is the origin of all life, the love of the Son who dies on the Cross and is raised, the love of the Spirit who renews human beings and the world. Thinking that God is love does us so much good, because it teaches us to love, to give ourselves to others as Jesus gave himself to us and walks with us. Jesus walks beside us on the road through life."

Comprehending the life of the Trinity is one which requires an extremely high amount of faith. The concept of One God manifested in Three Persons is unfathomable if viewed outside of faith. Faith is required to comprehend such a mystery, but the mystery is made more complex but understood with greater clarity when we realize that we live, move and have our being in the life of the Trinity. In the waters of baptism, we begin to participate in a mystery of love but as the Holy Father said, this love is not emotional; I prefer to say that this love is not sappy or saccharine; it is perfect and pure. It requires that we participate in this Divine Life freely and without constraints. The life of the Sacred Trinity is a gift so freely given that it should compel us to rejoice and desire in such an intense way, to live a life which requires nothing but us to freely give back the gift that God has given us to one another. The love that is shared between Father, Son and Spirit is given to us in abundance and it is this love that gives us purpose – purpose as disciples of Jesus Christ and purpose as imperfect, flawed individuals who live and enjoy divine life. Instead of attempting to comprehend the mystery, let us share the love that the Three Persons of the Trinity so freely share with us, namely a life of shared purpose and meaning.

Congratulations to all our local elementary, middle school, high school and college graduates! We know this year’s graduates faced many unique challenges in their collegiate experience. We celebrate your successes and pray for you and your families. May the gifts of the Holy Spirit continue to guide you go forward into the world!

Please Keep Our Churches Clean

Please remove ALL papers, tissues and any other items and dispose of them properly as you leave the church. Nothing should be left in the pews after Mass. (Trash receptacles are available at the entrances/exits). Please return all kneelers to the upright position as you leave. Thank you for your assistance.

Pope Francis on Peace

“We can speak of an “architecture” of peace, to which different institutions of society contribute, and an “art” of peace that involves each one of us. All can work together to build a more peaceful world, starting from the hearts of individuals and relationships in the family, then within society and with the environment, and all the way up to relationships between peoples and nations.”

Pray for Ukraine

Please continue praying a decade (or more) of the Rosary daily for the people of Ukraine and Russia and for the end of the war. At the back of each of the churches in the Parish there is a blue binder with the Ukrainian colors on the front. If you feel led by the Holy Spirit to do so, please sign your name as a simple commitment to pray daily until the end of this crisis. Sometimes even as a people of God we can feel overwhelmed or powerless when we see the images coming out of Ukraine and hear about demonstrators in Russia being beaten and any independent news sources being shut down. We can lose heart. We often forget that we have the most powerful weapon of all... prayer and when we come together as a community there is real power. Thank you for taking a few moments out of your day to unite with the larger Catholic/Christian community to pray for an end to this crisis.

Save the Dates

Please mark your calendars and make plans to join our parish festivities at Christmas in July! The event will be held at Saint Mark church and will begin Friday evening, July 22 from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm. Then Saturday, July 23, the day will begin at 9:00 am and continue until 3:00 pm. Join the parish community for food, crafts and fun. More information about how you can participate can be found further on in this bulletin!

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius
Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver
of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored
and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Prayer Shawl Committee

The Prayer Shawl Committee is working on prayer cloths to send to the Robb Elementary School in Uvalde, Texas. The cloths are pocket sized, with a cross stitched in the pattern, and each will include a special prayer card from Transfiguration of the Lord Parish. If you enjoy knitting or crocheting and would like to pitch in, please contact Nancy Chapman at nchapman88@comcast.net. Patterns are available and yarn if you need some. This is a great way to use up leftover yarn.

We hope to have them completed this summer and sent in late August.

Scheduling Baptisms

Parents requesting the baptism of their child should be registered members of the parish who attend weekend Mass on a weekly basis. Baptisms are celebrated on Saturdays at 1:00 pm at 14 Park Street with a maximum of four families. Please contact Monica in the office via email (stmaryna@noozi.com) for more information and visit the parish website www.saintmaryna.com and click on the “Sacraments” tab for more detailed information.

What Are The Requirements To Be a Godparent or Sponsor? If you have been asked to be a godparent, requirements set by the Roman Catholic Church are as follows: You must be a confirmed Catholic, at least 16 years old, registered in a parish and practicing your faith by regular participation at Mass. If you are married, your marriage must be recognized as valid by the Church. If you are currently a member of Transfiguration of the Lord Parish and have been asked to be a godparent, please see Father Rodney after Mass. You may contact the office for more information.

Treasures from Our Tradition

Today’s feast, extending a dimension of Easter joy into Ordinary Time, reminds us that every aspect of worship centers on the mystery of God in three persons. At baptism, we are initiated into Christ and the Spirit. The Creed we recite at Mass every Sunday has its roots in the ancient celebration of baptism, when a new believer was questioned at the edge of the waters of the font with three questions: Do you believe in God, the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit? Three questions, three affirmations, three immersions into the saving waters. Because every liturgy abounds with references to the Trinity, not only in words but in blessings by the sign of the cross, this feast was not easily accepted into the calendar. Pope Alexander in the eleventh century remarked that the liturgy is so laden with praise of the Trinity that there was no need for a special feast. Two hundred years later, while in exile in France, Pope John XXII proclaimed the feast, but it was not until 1911 that Pope St. Pius X gave it status as a solemnity.

A favorite image in art for today is the Icon of the Trinity, showing three glorious winged men seated at a table laden with bread and a cup of wine. It recalls Abraham’s hospitality to angels and gives expression to the inner life of God, a life lived in relationship, a life poured out in abundance whenever Christians gather at the table of the Eucharist to give praise to the Father, in Christ, in the embrace of the Spirit.

Readings for June 12

The Most Holy Trinity

FIRST READING

A reading from the Book of Proverbs

Thus says the wisdom of God:

“The LORD possessed me,
the beginning of his ways,
the forerunner of his prodigies
of long ago;
from of old I was poured forth,
at the first, before the earth.
When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains or
springs of water;
before the mountains were settled
into place,
before the hills, I was brought forth;
while as yet the earth and fields were not made,
nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there,
when he marked out the vault over
the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations
of the earth;
when he set for the sea its limit,
so that the waters should not
transgress his command;
then was I beside him as his craftsman,
and I was his delight day by day,
playing before him all the while,
playing on the surface of his earth;
and I found delight in the human race."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful
your name in all the earth!

When I behold your heavens, the work
of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you set
in place —
what is man that you should be mindful
of him,
or the son of man that you should
care for him?

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful
your name in all the earth!

You have made him little less than the angels,
and crowned him with glory
and honor.

You have given him rule over the works
of your hands,
putting all things under his feet:

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful
your name in all the earth!

All sheep and oxen,
yes, and the beasts of the field,
the birds of the air, the fishes of the sea,
and whatever swims the paths
of the seas.

R. O Lord, our God, how wonderful
your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters: Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

ALLELUIA

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

*Glory to the Father, the Son,
and the Holy Spirit;*

to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

† A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
