From Father Rodney

Fear! If you really think about it, fear is one of the central themes we encounter in the Gospels. The disciples, for any number of reasons, are always cowering away from what they perceive to be fearful situations. They are filled with fear when they see Jesus walking on the water and he says to them: “Be not afraid.” They are filled with fear when Jesus is arrested and they scatter and even Peter, the Rock, was filled with fear and concealed the truth that he even knew Jesus but remembered the words of the Lord as he heard the cock crow. His fear brought him to tears and he wept bitterly. The disciples are fear-filled when they go to the tomb and see it empty. They question the angel whom they believe to be the gardener and ask where Jesus is. They are incredulous and are a bit apprehensive when it comes to believing the Jesus had been raised from the dead. Fear brings the Eleven together in that Upper Room where they are hiding from the Jews yet Jesus appears, yet again, to dispel their fear. When they receive the gift of the Holy Spirit the fear is dispelled; those things that once held them bound are shattered and they are given the strength to go out into the world to teach all nations baptizing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Fear! A truly powerful emotion that loves to do one thing to us: control us. If we allow fear to control us, we are powerless. It took God’s Spirit for the Eleven to comprehend this reality and to begin living as those who are strong in Jesus Christ. A good question to ask ourselves on this great Feast of Pentecost is – what causes us to fear? What has such control over us that we are so filled with dread and fear? Is it an addiction of some sort? Is it the unknown? Perhaps it is a lengthy period of unemployment; perhaps a medical condition that dominates our lives that causes us great consternation. There are so many things that can bring fear into our lives – just as it did to the Eleven – but like the Eleven, we have received that promised Spirit. It was given to us in Baptism and for those of us who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation, we have been sealed with the Gifts of God’s Spirit, empowering us to be faithful witnesses in the world. As the Church comes to life at Pentecost, let us celebrate and recommit ourselves to spreading the Good News. Happy Birthday Church! Be not afraid!

Mass schedule moving forward during the on-going Pandemic- update re: CDC changes

Last week, the CDC issued new guidelines regarding the wearing of masks and the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has issued guidelines regarding social distancing norms while inside building and the capacity of church buildings. As of the publication of this bulletin the Diocese of Fall River has yet to make any new changes regarding how we will proceed in the future and to that end, there is nothing that I can say at this time. I personally spoke with the Bishop before a Confirmation I attended in Fall River on Monday evening and he indicated to me that changes here in this Diocese will be at a slower pace. I will update you as I am given information. The parish website will be the primary mode of communication. For the time being, those wishing to attend Mass indoors will need to continue making a "reservation." I am going to reissue the announcement re: the protocols of our parish that were in last week's bulletin. Thank you for your patience.

Father Rodney

On the Vigil of Pentecost May 29, 2020, we were first given permission to finally gather as a community of faith so that we could receive the Eucharist. Leading up to our official re-opening, the parish staff spent a great deal of time thinking about how we could best serve the spiritual needs of the faithful here in North Attleborough. At that time, the decision to NOT have indoor Mass was made as we could better accommodate folks outdoors. In June, we received word from the Bishop's Office that if buildings had not yet been re-opened we would need to do so and that is exactly what we did. The two outdoor Masses give people the opportunity to gather – yes, not in an actual church building – safely to receive the Eucharist. We gather and there are no limitations as to the number of people who can be physically present nor do you have to make a reservation. We are able to only accommodate 125 people inside of Saint Mary Church – at this time due to social distance norms. We average over 300 people each and every Saturday and Sunday at each of the outdoor Masses. If we were to stop having those liturgies over 175 people at each Mass would be denied admission due to current State imposed limitations. At Saint Mark's we can accommodate 100 people and at Sacred Heart 85. Even though "reservations" end at 3PM on Friday's, these Masses are never, ever experience full capacity. I want for the faithful to be able to receive the Eucharist and to be able to worship. I know that folks are desirous to enter Saint Mary Church. You can. Daily Mass is celebrated both Tuesday and Wednesday at 4:30PM and no reservations are needed. For the time being, I am going to yield to the greater good and that is making certain that those who want to come to church on a Sunday are able to do so. As soon as restrictions are lifted by the Diocese (and no one is more ready than yours truly) we will adjust the current situation. We are still in the midst of living in an active pandemic and that is not easy. I appreciate that you continue to be patient and understanding even though it is not easy.

Sincerely,
Father Rodney

Readings for May 23

Pentecost Sunday

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, you are great indeed!
How manifold are your works, O LORD!
the earth is full of your creatures.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

May the glory of the LORD endure forever;
may the LORD be glad in his works!
Pleasing to him be my theme;
I will be glad in the LORD.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

If you take away their breath, they perish
and return to their dust.
When you send forth your spirit, they are created,
and you renew the face of the earth.

R. Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Second Reading

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Galatians

Brothers and sisters, live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law. Now the works of the flesh are obvious: immorality, impurity, lust, idolatry, sorcery, hatreds, rivalry, jealousy, outbursts of fury, acts of selfishness, dissensions, factions, occasions of envy, drinking bouts, orgies, and the like. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. In contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their flesh with its passions and desires. If we live in the Spirit, let us also follow the Spirit.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Gospel

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John Glory to you, O Lord. †

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
