From Father Rodney

2,996! That is the number of souls lost on September 11, 2001 in New York City, Arlington, Virginia and Shanksville, Pennsylvania. It is extremely difficult to fathom that twenty (20) years have passed since that tragic day in the life of our country. I was a newly ordained priest (having been ordained in July of the same year) and was administering the anointing of the sick to an elderly parishioner who was not doing well and despite the television being on mute, my eyes glanced in the nick of time to see United Airlines Flight 175 crash into the second tower having not known of the previous attack by the first flight that had crashed into the first tower which aboard were family and friends of those reading these words...yours truly included. Father Francis "Frank" Grogan was a Holy Cross Priest who was aboard the flight flying to Los Angeles to visit his sister. That day will forever live in our collective hearts and minds as one of immense sadness and yes anger. As I type these words as I (we) prepare to mark this solemn occasion in the history of our country tears are literally streaming down my cheeks. There are just some things that will never bring comfort to us, and that tragic day is one of those events. Yes, our country sought justice. Osama bin Laden was killed but that does not take away the pain from our hearts. One death does not make proper reparation for the murder of 2,996 United States citizens. I pray for each and every person who knew someone on board one of the four (4) flights. I pray for their families, and I pray for those who simply grieve because of a senseless act of terror. Let us each do our part to make peace be a part of our world that is so needlessly divided. Let us be emissaries of peace and justice in a world that hungers and yearns for these essential necessities. I have not composed the following prayer, but I hope that we each use it to facilitate to the healing that is still so needed. May we never forget! God rest those 2,996 souls who had done nothing to deserve the fate that they met. Rest in peace and may God Bless the United States of America.

A Prayer for the Anniversary of 9/11

O God, our hope and refuge,
in our distress we come quickly to you.
Shock and horror of that tragic day have subsided,
replaced now with an emptiness,
a longing for an innocence lost.
We come remembering those who lost their lives in New York, Washington D.C., and Pennsylvania.
We are mindful of the sacrifice of public servants who demonstrated the greatest love of all by laying down their lives for friends.
We commit their souls to your eternal care
and celebrate their gifts to a fallen humanity.
We come remembering
and we come in hope,
not in ourselves, but in you.
As foundations we once thought secure have been shaken,
we are reminded of the illusion of security.
In commemorating this tragedy,
we give you thanks for your presence in our time of need and we seek to worship you in Spirit and in truth, our guide and our guardian. Amen.

How Does One Become a Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults RCIA is the liturgical process concerned with the total spiritual formation of a person that enables an individual to become a Catholic. Their gradual development culminates in the celebration of the Initiation Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist usually at the Easter Vigil celebration. Soon, the R.C.I.A. program will begin for another year. Interested in learning more? If you, or someone you know might have an interest, please call RCIA coordinator, Arlene Hall at 508-695-0549 or see Father Rodney after Mass..

The diocesan program for those adults seeking to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation is intended to provide catechetical instruction in the faith, as well as spiritual support to compliment the parish in the formation of candidates, who are completing their initiation in the Catholic Church. Prior to registration, candidates must begin this process by meeting with the pastor to gather canonical documents, determine if there are any impediments to the reception of the sacrament, as well as the desire and disposition of the inquirer requesting the sacrament. Candidates should submit a certificate of Baptism to their pastor if they were not baptized in this parish. This year's preparation through the Diocese of Fall River is a hybrid program, with both virtual and in-person sessions for candidates to attend in the Fall. Online Thursdays from 6:30 pm to 8:00 pm via Zoom (Oct. 7, 21, 28, Nov. 14) In person Saturday mornings from 10:00 am to 12 noon (Oct. 16, Nov. 6, Dec. 4) Confirmation will take place December 9 at 7:00 pm at the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption, Fall River. If you are interested in beginning this process, please email the parish office or see Father Rodney after Mass.

Readings for September 12
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The Lord GOD opens my ear that I may hear;
and I have not rebelled,
have not turned back.

I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting.

The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced;
I have set my face like flint,
knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

He is near who upholds my right;
if anyone wishes to oppose me,
let us appear together.

Who disputes my right?
Let that man confront me.

See, the Lord GOD is my help;
who will prove me wrong?

The word of the Lord.      Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I love the LORD because he has heard
my voice in supplication,
Because he has inclined his ear to me
the day I called.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

The cords of death encompassed me;
the snares of the netherworld seized upon me;
I fell into distress and sorrow,
And I called upon the name of the LORD,
“O LORD, save my life!”

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Gracious is the LORD and just;
yes, our God is merciful.
The LORD keeps the little ones;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

For he has freed my soul from death,
my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.
I shall walk before the LORD
in the land of the living.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Second Reading

A reading from the Letter of Saint James

What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, keep warm, and eat well, ” but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

Indeed someone might say, “You have faith and I have works.” Demonstrate your faith to me without works, and I will demonstrate my faith to you from my works.

The word of the Lord.      Thanks be to God.

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia

Gospel

The Lord be with you.      And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Glory to you, O Lord. †

Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” They said in reply, “John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets.” And he asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter said to him in reply, “You are the Christ.” Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him.

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.”

He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
