

Please read through this information regarding the ministries on the schedule. Thank you!

For Eucharistic Ministers:

4:00 pm will now be inside beginning August 8. Two Eucharistic Ministers are assigned

11:00 am is still assigned one “back up” Eucharistic Ministers in the event that Deacon Joe is not at that Mass. Please be aware that Father may ask for your assistance even if Deacon is there, to assist.

When Deacon Joe is present at either the 4:00 pm or the 9:30 am Masses, one of the Eucharistic Ministers should “stand down”. It is likely easiest for the first person listed to go up, and the second person to remain in their seat. If Deacon Joe is present at the 8:00 am Mass, the two Eucharistic Ministers should take the transepts and Deacon can assist in the main aisle with Father.

We have received some feedback from parishioners who are concerned about Eucharistic Ministers touching their hand when they receive the host. Please make every effort to not come into direct contact with the communicant’s hand. It may feel a bit awkward, but if you hold the top of the host and once the bottom touches the person’s hand, gently release, you are less likely to touch the person than if you hold the side and place the host directly on the person’s palm. Just do your best. As always, please remember to wear your mask when you are distributing Communion and sanitize your hands before you begin and at the end before returning to your seat.

For Lectors:

Lectors, please take your seat in the congregation after the procession into the church (if Deacon Joe is present, you do not process as he will carry the Book of the Gospels into church.). Please come forward for the First Reading, remain in the sanctuary for the Second Reading (the Responsorial Psalm is sung) and the Prayer of the Faithful. Please return to your seat in the congregation after the Prayer of the Faithful.

For Usher Coordinators:

For all Masses one person has been assigned as Usher Coordinator for each Mass time. With the exception of the 11:00 am Mass the same person is in that slot each week. The coordinator is asked to find others to assist with the collection, lock the collection and make sure that the bulletins are put out at the end of Mass. Please feel free to ask any of the other ushers who are “regulars” to take the role of coordinator for any week you may not be attending that Mass.
